

Resource Management Certified Professional (RMCP)[®] Program

Professional certification program specifically designed for resource managers.

The Challenge

Services providers are constantly being challenged to provide the right resources with the right skills at the right place at the right time to maximize margins and project performance. Over the next decade, effectively and efficiently sourcing and managing resources will be the new high water mark for the industry.

At the same time, reliable resource management experts who follow a proven process discipline are in short supply.

The Solution

Resource management certification is critical to supporting high levels of sustainable proficiency in this mission critical discipline. Certification also provides career development for today's resource management professional. An RMCP[®] will be trained in the leading best practices for effective management of your human capital productivity and receive access to the very best information and thought leadership available in the industry today.
